Attention - Reservation Department

In a few weeks, I will be going on a business trip to Japan, and I will be staying in Fukuoka for several days.

Two months ago, a colleague of mine stayed at your hotel. He recommended your hotel to me, and he gave me the Internet address of your hotel's Web site. I tried to access the Web site, but a message on the screen indicated that the site is temporarily unavailable because it is being updated. Luckily, I came across your e-mail address in a travel magazine.

Can you please give me some information about available rooms and their prices? I plan to be in Fukuoka from Oct. 16 through Oct. 19 and will only need a single room during my stay there. In addition, please let me know if you have any special packages for business travelers and if your hotel provides free breakfast for guests.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter. I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Minkyu Lim

Questions 155-157 refer to the following review.

The City's Newest Restaurant

I had dinner last night at the KEG, the newest family restaurant in Fullerton. Having reviewed nearly all of the restaurants in Fullerton, I can truthfully say that the KEG is one of the most fantastic restaurants I've ever enjoyed visiting. The food served was excellent, the ambience was bright and pleasant, and the staff was well trained and friendly. As part of its grand opening celebration, Maria Glavas, the owner, provided a free dessert for every entrée ordered.

As you would expect at a family restaurant, the KEG has a variety of food items on its menu that will surely appeal to customers' different tastes.

The entrées consist of delicious Italian pastas with meat, poultry, seafood, or vegetables. All the dishes are freshly cooked and are moderately priced.

From June 7 until June 14, the KEG will serve all kinds of entrees at discounted price. In addition, all daily specials will be served with fresh bread, salad, and juice, tea, or coffee. The KEG is located on Main Street in Fullerton. The restaurant is open daily from 11 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. Catering services for all occasions are also offered by the restaurant.

Questions 168 -171 refer to the following notice.

For the attention of all academic staff members:

After meeting with the university board and teachers' union, we have decided to make tentative changes to the teaching schedules of all lecturers, and we request your cooperation during this period. — [1] —. All academic staff members in the faculty of humanities now need to complete a 40-hour workweek, which includes 16-18 standard teaching hours, preparing for classes and doing administrative tasks. — [2] —. These hours should take place from Monday to Friday from 9:00 A.M. until 5:00 P.M., but individual times can vary depending on the activity required.

Please complete one of the forms below and indicate your preference for teaching hours and additional activities. — [3] —. We can then assign timetables and increase productivity by creating an overall university schedule. We will evaluate the new system at the end of the second semester next year. — [4] —. Further details are available in the final report, which will be e-mailed to all staff members on June 9.
